HUERTA FORCED OUT AND A PROVISIONAL HEAD TO BE NAMED

BULLETIN
On board President Wilson's special train, Baltimore, Md., June 13—That the crisis in the Mexican situation will be reached Monday or Tuesday was the opinion of President Wilson as he received a long message on board his special car informing him of the agreement at Niagara Falls on the first section of the protocol.

Washington, June 13—That the new provisional president who is to be aided by the South American diplomats to bring order out of chaos will be selected almost immediately seems certain here today.

The substantial progress already made at Niagara Falls indicate Huerta will be out and the task of restoring order will begin. The administration is sure Huerta will agree to the tentative plan backed by this movement, and that fighting will cease when Huerta has turned over the presidency to his successor.

While it is admitted that a fit of stubbornness on the part of Carranza might block the negotiations but it is hoped nothing of this kind will occur.

The chief jarring notes today come from the paid junta maintained by the rebels in Washington. These men, including professional men, promoting revolution, insist Carranza cannot make any concessions. He has already secured control of most of Mexico by night of right. Secretary Bryan takes no stock in these rumors. He declared they are actuated by selfish motives. He declared that when the revolution ends the positions of these men can be obliterated.

Agreement Signed Retiring Huerta
By Lawrence Todd, staff correspondent of the International News Service.
Mediation Headquarters, Niagara Falls, June 13. Having signed an agreement that President Huerta shall retire and be succeeded by a government that will be recognized by the United States, the mediators and delegates in informal conferences today took up the second delicate point in the negotiations.

The form which this government shall take and whether it shall be inducted into office by appointment of General Huerta or by simultaneous proclamation by the two warring factions of the republic.

This is the second half of the first plank in the mediators' original plan. Should an understanding be reached before night and the settlement reduced to writing there will be taken up tomorrow the third and all important point—what man shall be provisional president and who shall be the cabinet head.

The mediators have made it plain that they will welcome delegates from the revolutionary party at any time under terms of an armistice. They believe that the appointment of representatives who shall merely talk privately with the American and Huerta delegates would also help in hastening the agreement. But they are convinced that the United States will give its consent here to no scheme which is the end will be rejected by Carranza.

The Mexican delegates have attempted to secure an agreement upon the date at which the provisional government is to be created. They want it placed in power as soon as possible—perhaps within a very few days. The Americans do not believe that an election can be held until the establishment of a provisional government is not eventually a matter for haste.

Two weeks will probably be allowed from the date of the signing of the protocol.

The Mexican delegates to the mediation conference today received through the three South American diplomats the formal answer of the United States government to their protest of last Sunday against the sailing of the steamer Antilla with arms for the Mexican constitutionalists. The Washington answer in effect sets forth its regret that a misunderstanding over jurisdiction between the department of commerce and treasury gave clearance papers to the Antilla which had not been intended she should have.

SECRETARY HOUSTON SEES REVIVAL OF BUSINESS ACTIVITY IN UNITED STATES

Washington, June 13—Whatever there is of industrial inactivity in the United States is simply our share of a slight world-wide depression. A big wheat crop and excellent prospects of other big crops will go a long way towards balancing the depression. This was the opinion expressed today by Secretary Houston of the department of agriculture.

"With a wheat crop of 900,000,000 bushels business cannot help be stimulated. How far it will be aided remains to be seen. The appeals which have reached me for men to harvest the crop indicates more than 100,000 men can be used," said the secretary.

Houston favors cheap excursion rates to the wheat west, if the right kind of men can be found. Employment for six months and probably permanent places will be promised them at from $2.50 to $3.00 per day.

TWO GIANT LINERS COLLIDE, LUCKILY ESCAPING A WRECK

On Board the Steamship New York, via Wireless, to Siasconsette, Mass., June 13.—While the American liner New York was motionless in a heavy fog four miles east of Ambrose light ship early today, the Hamburg-American liner Pretoria, bound east, ran into her and ripped a hole 12 feet high and 32 feet long in her port side. The hole is flush with the main deck and is 15 feet above the water line. The Pretoria's anchor was torn from her bow and left hanging inside the gap that had been torn in the New York.

Practically all of the passengers on both ships were asleep. Immediately after the collision the engines on both vessels were put at full speed astern and passengers came hurrying to the deck. The passengers of the New York were able to reach over and touch the bow of the Pretoria as she was pulling away from her perilous position.

Captain Roberts and Chief Officer Turner were both on the bridge at the time of the collision. They assured the frightened passengers, many of whom hurried to the starboard of the ship, that there was no danger. Members of the crew also went among the passengers and urged them to remain calm. After the passengers were assured there was no danger they began to laugh and joke at the queer costumes in which some of the passengers appeared on deck. The passengers remained on deck until dawn. After it was determined there was no further danger both ships proceeded on their way.

PRESIDENTIAL PARTY IS AT PRINCETON

Washington, June 13.—President Wilson left here at 8 a. m. for Princeton to attend a reunion of the class of '79 of which he is a member.

The president was accompanied by Secretary and Mrs. McAdoo, Secretary Tamm and Dr. Cary T. Grayson, the president's physician. The party will devote the day to Princeton celebrations including a lunch, a dinner, and the Princeton-Yale baseball game.

Greeted uproariously by a huge crowd of Princeton graduates and undergraduates yelling like locomotives and singing old songs President Wilson "Princeton '79" returned to his alma mater shortly after noon today for the annual alumni day celebration. For the day the president was "Tommy" to the 85 men of the class of '79 who returned for their 35th graduating anniversary and was just like any other other graduate. He was slapped on the back, cheered, hurried about, and in every way treated as little like a president of the United States as was possible.

COCO-COLA NOT INJURIOUS

Cincinnati, O., June 13.—United States Court of Appeals here today held that coca cola is not injurious within the meaning of the pure food law. The court acquitted 40 bottles of coca cola of the charge that they adulterated or misbranded bottles.

Thaw Case In Court

Washington, June 13.—Despite Attorney General Crammey's refusal to agree to the removal of Harry K. Thaw from New Hampshire to Pennsylvania for an appearance in court in connection with the settlement of his father's estate counsel for Thaw asked the supreme court to approve such a plan in case the application for refusal of bail is not granted. The court today was considering this latest request as well as the original petition for release and will probably render a decision about Monday.

SUFFRAGE IS ENDORSED

Chicago, June 13.—"Votes for women" was endorsed by an almost unanimous vote today by the biennial convention of the Federation of Women's Clubs. A resolution introduced by Mrs. G. D. Danison, of California, was adopted with a vote of scarcely any opposition. Suffrage cheerers filled the auditorium.

CARS BURNED.
Cleveland, O., June 13.—A half dozen switch engines saved but 15 of 200 box cars when fire swept the Lindale Yards of the Erie Railroad here early today. The burned cars contained valuable merchandise. The loss will reach $100,000.

ARMED POLICE GUARD THEODORE FROM THE WILD-EYED MILITANTS

London, England, June 13.—Guarded from militant suffragettes by Scotland Yard detectives Col. Roosevelt, former president of the United States, arrived here today from Madrid, where he had attended the wedding of his son Kermit to Miss Belle Willard, daughter of Ambassador Willard.

Col. Roosevelt was accompanied by his daughter, Mrs. Nicholas Longworth, and his cousin Philip Roosevelt of New York.

The Roosevelt party was met at the Charing Cross railway station by Walter H. Pogo, the American ambassador, and by Arthur Hamilton Lee, a Unionist member of parliament whose guest Colonel Roosevelt will be over the week end.

In answer to a shower of questions as to United States politics and his controversy with A. Henry Savage Landor over his discovery of the colored said:

"I cannot discuss politics nor am I at liberty to say anything further about my South American discoveries. I think I covered all points in my statement issued in Paris last night."

The chief remark made by the former president at the reception, to the press was:

"Gentlemen I am full of sinners from 26 hours of traveling and my chief desire now is to get into a bath tub."

A number of detectives mingled with the crowd at the Charing Cross station, keeping a wary eye upon all the women to prevent any subversive demonstration. It was not anticipated that any hostility would be shown the colonel for he has already expressed himself in favor of "votes for women," but the British officials did not want the ceremonies of reception interrupted.

On Monday, Sir Edward Grey, the British foreign minister, will give a luncheon to Colonel Roosevelt which will be attended by many prominent persons.

A great deal of curiosity had been expressed before the arrival of the colonel as to what honors would be paid by the government because of the ex-president's opposition to free trade for the Panama canal a proposition vigorously sponsored by the British government.

Colonel Roosevelt told friends that he would sail for New York next Thursday.

He said further that charts, graphs to whom the task has been entrusted of making maps of the regions covered by the Roosevelt expedition in Brazil have not yet completed their work. These maps will be used to silence critics of the colonel.

BICYCLIST IS KILLED BY TRAIN

Asheville, O., June 13. Frank Tustin, 17, was struck and killed here last night by a southbound Norfolk & Western passenger train at the main grade crossing where seven other people have been hurt within the last month. Young Tustin was riding a bicycle and a freight train obstructed the view of the passenger train. The boy was hurled 30 feet. He was the son of William Tustin of this village.

MAYOR HURT BY MINERS

Butte, Montana, June 12.—Rioting miners intent on wreaking vengeance on an officer of their union because of alleged mismanagement attacked Mayor Frank Curran here today when he sought to prevent the wedding of the miners' union boss. The mayor was hurled to a hospital in an unconscious condition.

OLDEST NY. WOMAN

Whitesburg, Ky., June 13.—Aunt Christie Stallard, the oldest woman in the state, who a few days ago celebrated her 106th birthday at Hilliard, this county, fell while hoeing in her garden today and sustained internal injuries that may cause her death.

MAURICE J. CALDWELL

The citizens of Scioto county have surely paid a very high compliment to the efficiency and personality of Maurice J. Caldwell, present treasurer of Scioto county by not giving him opposition within or without his own party for re-election. It is a splendid recognition of this young man's public services, and evidence of his great popularity with all classes of people. Besides being one of the most agreeable persons who attracts and holds friends, he is one of the county's most up-to-date farmers and stockmen who is doing all that he can with liberal means and superior ability to better farm conditions in this splendid agricultural county. His efforts along these lines are worth much to the county by the way of example that is ever encouraging to others to put away for all time the old foggy methods and adopt the new that brings greater rewards for the expenditure of toil, time and means. Mr. Caldwell is an ideal official and is in every way deserving of the honor conferred upon him by the people he serves.

THE COSTUME MATTER.

We are perfectly willing for the women to settle the costume question if they will agree to let it stay settled, and while they have the matter under discussion at Chicago us poor creeping things of the dust, who have so kindly remained at home and are doing our best to take care of the house, seeing that newspapers are carefully scattered without discrimination or favor over all the floors and that every piece of chinaware remains where we left it on the dining room table when the crew went home with poker chips polka-dotted the drawn-worked center piece, are praying unceasingly that they may arrive at some agreement wherein one hat and one cheap suit will be given the same endurance as the one we brag about having purchased five years ago and worn every day since and looks good as new.

DELICIOUS CHERRY PIE.

While contemplating good things to eat, one finds that the season has pushed upon them a delicacy that is so seductive that even the flavor of cracklings, greens and dewberry pie is forgotten. Surely these have their merits, but none comes up to that de-luxe degree as an appetizing dessert as cherry pie or old-fashioned cherry cobbler. When it is cooked right, as it always is, the good woman fixes a little white sauce to dash over it and as if to cap it off with the honeyed dew-drops from the heavens she serves a slice of ice cream as a cap sheet to same, then "it is fit" to set aside any diagnosis of the most careful and skillful physician for the time being at least and often times effects a permanent cure for the most troublesome and refractory diseases. That cherry pie was one of the earliest luxuries of this country is evidenced by the fact that the sublime song referring to it was written long before "Home, Sweet Home," and there isn't a grown-up person in all the universe who cannot recall those cheering lines:

"Can she make a cherry pie, Billy Boy, Billy Boy:
Can she make a cherry pie, charming Willie?
Yes, she can make a cherry pie as quick as a cat can wink
its eye,
But, she is a young thing and cannot leave her mammy."

SEE OUR SHOW.

Without casting any reflections on the "Home Products" show at Columbus, a hearty invitation is extended to those capital city folks who can tear themselves away from the cares of urgent business to come down to the Peerless City even for a day and get a few pointers how to run one of these shows successfully and as it should be run. Just come down during Kern Carnival week and see a show that is a show. The rest will be left to you, believing that you will be repaid for the trip and go away as has delegates from other cities bearing a high regard for the Portsmouth "No How" in such undertakings.

The siege of Tarrytown and the siege of Mexico are attracting world-wide attention and it is even money which will fall first.

After much fuss and feathers, the rebels have secured their supplies without any trouble more than waste of words and will proceed on the pacification of Mexico in about the only way it will ever be pacified.

The distressing peculiarity of motoring is that motor schedules and train schedules are so similar that just at the moment when one drives up on the truck the fool train comes along.

We may be accused of being a pessimist and a grouch when we admit that all the June graduates are charming girls and add to this admission that we have found, as does the professor, that the plain-faced ones get the best grades and seem to be recognized as being the most capable in a general way by the public after the frills and fuss is all over. Glad we are there are many exceptions to this rule.

HEAD UP THE BAR'L.

Should Mr. Perkins take a hint and head up the bar'l that has been standing wide open for two years to cheer up, and on those patriots that open their political meetings with that old and popular tune that deserves better associations. "Onward, Christian Soldiers," there would be such a stagnation in Progressive circles that would cause the most confirmed standpatter to awaken from the lethargy of his idleness and shed tears of real joy.

When two world-wide wingers get into court it is high time for the paragraphers who draw a long bow to be exceedingly careful as to the tune they assay to play.

PUBLIC AND PRIVATE IMPROVEMENTS

When municipal, county and state machinery develops the efficiency of a railroad corporation the tax payer can hope to get one hundred cents for his dollars. As an example, by way of comparison, not only in this county but other counties that were visited by the destructive flood of a year ago, railways did not lounge about and put in days of considering, but expert engineers were summoned and every construction facility of the road and elsewhere were rushed to the scene of destruction and temporary repairs were made as fast as men and machinery could work. Long bridges were built in a night over which heavy trains were run. All this activity was for the purpose of reducing the losses of delay to the minimum. There was a typical American demonstration of efficiency displayed along all railway lines.

How about the bridges the people owned that went down in the flood? These placed in the hands of politicians who are by the regular order of things political, are creatures of public opinion. They wait until they see what the people want, not what they need, and by the time all the red tape that is necessary to unwind in order to arrive at some half-way conclusion, giving time and opportunity for all manner of senseless objections to same, the community has lost many times the cost of the improvement had it been made at the time when it should in all reason have been made. This reference is not made to recall any local matters in the premises, but to show by comparison the way the public utility corporations do things. Is it not best for the people to arrange to conduct their business with the same promptness and dispatch with the same economy in view as the railways? There is no doubt, whatever of the proper course to pursue. Why should we be forced to meet situations by formal and tedious preparation that places an extra burden on the taxpayers? In regarding the public treasury the all-wise legislatures have in about all the states made the taxpayer the goat and the cury-comb is passed gently over him to make him feel that it was all done in his interest, when the sluggishness of it all is but an extra burden about his neck that he proceeds to carry with the same contentment as a mule does his daily task. Will the public get out of this expensive rut?

THE YARN OF LONG AGO.

Chicago has not pulled fair the past two weeks with the rest of the world, having had at least two sensational domestic cases that attracted almost world-wide attention—the Rhodolphev and Schumann-Heink cases. We have listened to a lot of stuff offered in testimony that we call foolishness, but somehow it recalls to our memories something pleasant of the long ago when we too said a few things to fair lady that we meant then and have never taken back. No man has ever enjoyed living who has never made love to some good woman and gone through the anxieties surrounding the experiences that led up to the altar. The faithless man though should never have this blessing.

The announcement that Kermit keeps the itinerary of his honeymoon a profound secret shows that the young man has much tact. He doesn't want father hanging around doing all the talking after the wedding is over.

The most cultivated imagination cannot conceive the jealousy that exists in the minds of the other boys in the neighborhood of the West Side youth who is said to have two stomachs, especially along about blackberry time.

The moments are drawing near when most of the folks will like off to the watering places leaving us poor creatures at home to guard the city and save the country for them while they are away, which we will do to the best of our abilities and be dinged proud of the job.

In recalling those gunboats and showing a disposition to be good, the rugged old dictator gives out an intimation that he is beginning to see the end of his pathway of force and blood. Being a politician, alike in many characteristics to the politician elsewhere, he is getting ready to take his medicine although the drugs are bitter, nauseating and discomforting.

With the largest wheat crop ever produced almost ready for the bins there should be some assurance that flour will be cheaper. But will it and how much?

The epidemic that prevails among the rich stockholders of the New Haven just about the time they are summoned to appear to give testimony before an inquiry is really distressing to say the least of it. It will take an inventive genius to discover a serum that will allay this indisposition.

Messes, Carnegie and Carranza should work up a band of intimacy. The latter has the conclusion of peace in his grasp, and Uncle Andy has the palace in which to house it, so it might be well for them to get together for the mutual interest of both.

Huerta's magnanimous recall of his dogs of war is acknowledged with thanks, doubtless fully recognizing that it is too dogged hot to do anything else but sit out in the shade of the canvas bushes and suck the refreshing beverage through the straw carrying him to forget all his troubles and the worry of his enemies.

KEEP MOVING.

With the farmers of the Scioto valley appealing for farm help there is no excuse for the numerous and distinguished high degree members of the ancient and exalted order of the Sons of Rest decorating the good boxes and beer kegs of this splendid city and arguing about "the hard times that have set in." The understanding is that his honor, the mayor, has his eye on this order and its ranks are being shot to pieces.

There is much prophecy that just as soon as the colonel is raised to the sublime degree of grandpa his conqueror will be found, but not before.

The mediators are hereby given notice that the vacations of paragraphers begin at midnight June 30, and they have already engaged the bait and have located cheap boarding near an old-fashioned swimming hole, and they do not purpose being disappointed about the matter either. So get busy and what this summer up, too much time already has been frittered away.

Almost Choked

Harold, the 2 year old baby son of John Redepennig, well known merchant tailor, almost choked to death at the family home on Fourth street Friday.

The child in some manner got hold of a pencil sharpener, placing it in his mouth it finally lodging in the throat. The mother was away at the time. Esther, a sister of the child, succeeded in dislodging the article just in time to save her little brother's life.

YOKE OF BABY'S DRESS. MOTIF FOR BABY PILLOW. SCALLOPS FOR UNDERWEAR. MOTIF FOR FRONT OF CHEMISE.

In these patterns the scallops are padded and closely buttonholed. The flowers and letters are worked solid with the dots as eyelets and the stems in the outline stitch. The curved figures are buttonholed with the purling brought to the inside—the cross-bars are formed of strands of cotton stretched from side to side and buttonholed across without catching through the material which is cut away underneath. Use mercerized cotton No. 25.

DIRECTIONS FOR TRANS-FERRING

In taking off these patterns, lay a piece of impression paper upon the material, place the newspaper pattern over this, and with a hard, sharp pencil draw firmly over each line. If the material is sheer it may be laid over the pattern and drawn off with pencil, as the design will show through. No patterns of these designs are available.

Miss Dolly Wise

She is here to answer any and all questions concerning love, matrimony, troubles, vexes, etiquette, etc. Inquiries should be addressed to Miss Dolly Wise, care The Daily Times, Portsmouth, Ohio.

The Island Queen won't make another trip until the Eds. clear it for another excursion, which will be about April 28, this coming, but if you will call on me up I will give you name and date in town it would be quite address of several women who foolish to write to you through make a specialty of that kind of the week. I think. Not unless work.

Louise, West Brooklyn, Illinois.—You are entirely too young to have a beau. Your parents should give you a good spanking if you insist on having a steady. Tanco is not a summer color. It's too hot looking. Wear white and other light cool material while you can. You are too young to go to dances unless you go with your parents or some other member of the family. You had better go to school next year and several more, as your spelling is very poor. I think if you would devote more time to your studies and less to thinking about the boys, you would be better off. You will have worse things than a sore on your mouth if you don't stop kissing the boys. Better play with your dolls awhile, and keep young, or as young as long as the present day fashion will let you.

Dear Miss Wise, I am a young girl thirteen years of age and as I am out of school for the summer, I would like to do some thing to make some money. What and takes or ice cream and cake would you advise me to do? Better late than never, applies to a honey moon as well as anything something of that kind. Just a piece. Some say it's bad luck to kill a cat. I have never killed one, but felt like it lots of times when they are snuggling on the back fence.

THE DAILY MENU

COOKING RECIPES WORTH REMEMBERING

When the days begin to grow damp and chilly the home cook waits for a choice hot, savory dishes for her dinner menu. No better suggestion could be made along this line than beef steaks with dumplings. Aside from its delicious flavor it is economical and so is doubly to be desired as an addition to the recipe book. Preserved ripe tomatoes are good with hot steaks or rolls. This is the opening of the new pumpkin pie season, always an important time for those who take a special pleasure in this old fashioned pastry.

Best New with Dumplings.
Hot Beef, Preserved Ripe Tomatoes, Combination Salad, Coffee.

Beef Steak with Dumplings.
In making beef steaks one of the most economical pieces is a flank steak; it is not expensive and has absolutely no waste; other portions which are tough but yield to the long cooking are the shoulder, lower part of round, leg, etc. Cut the lean meat into longer lengths; try out the bits of fat and in it quickly brown the toughest stringy pieces. As soon as browned transfer them to the saucepan; add to the fat remaining in the skillet a tablespoonful of dry flour, and mix with a fork. Gradually add one cup of boiling water to one-half water, and one-half salted tomato and stir well together, and season with salt, pepper, a little onion or Worcestershire sauce to a hot even. Some steam it waterwise, and strain it into the sauce, pumpkin instead of steaming it.

Pumpkin Pie.
Sew pumpkin, cut into small pieces, half pint of water and, when soft, add one cup of sugar, one-half cup of flour, and one-half cup of milk. Cook until thickened, season this with cinnamon or nutmeg, bake with a good crust in a hot oven. Some steam it waterwise, and strain it into the sauce, pumpkin instead of steaming it.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hildlip, who were married in Lynchburg, Va. Monday, arrived home this morning and will be pleased to see all their friends at the home of Mrs. Philip Hildlip, 1718 Eleventh street. Mr. Hildlip was Miss Nell Parker of Lynchburg, Va.

Dr. and Mrs. Dan J. Lloyd and family, Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Tule and Mr. and Mrs. George Stier, composed a merry party who will be entertained Sunday at the home of County Treasurer and Mrs. Maurice J. Caldwell, north of the city.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Albion and their daughter, Edith and M. L. of Bacon Vista, were shopping visitors in Portsmouth Saturday.

Mrs. Bertha Liles, of Second street, has as guest Mrs. Robert Jones, of Vancsburg, Ky.

John Redepenn, a Gail street merchant tailor, celebrated a birthday anniversary Sunday. His baby son, Harold, became the year of age Friday.

FINE MEETING IS ENJOYED BY HIGH SCHOOL ALUMNI

RARE POETICAL ABILITY IS SHOWN BY STUDENT

Richard Browne Dudit, a member of the 1914 graduating class of the Portsmouth high school, who delivered the response of his class at the annual banquet of the Portsmouth Alumni Association held in the high school Friday night. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dudit. Honor of delivering the toast was conferred on him by an unanimous vote as he closed his school with the highest average for four years. His toast, "Over the Goal," is his own penning and a most sparkling poetical effort. It follows:

RICHARD BROWNE DUDUIT

Over The Goal or On The Outside Looking 'Round

My subject is, as you may guess,
"Over the Goal," but P. H. S.
Will surely not take it amiss.
If I from such a theme disgress:
For, friends and classmates I'll confess
The more I think, I think the less
Of that as subject for address.

At such a time as this, it seems
Since we are safely "Over the goal,"
Since we have realized our dreams,
Twere not amiss if it were told
Just why we this fine banquet hold,
Just why our sheep skins are in roll'd:
"With marked success," in letters bold.

Perhaps you'll say, "Why we have won
Our marks and but receive our own!"
My class mates, we have but begun
Our work—and that much not alone.
How answer you the ponies sold
To us? and "how 'bout" "erib'd up" books?
What say you of Dad's lah, book old
Or some good scholar's telling look?

Were I to pause, perchance you'd say,
"He should stick to his subject more!"
Why this is not the proper way
To show us up! It makes me sore!"
And so in passing, I'll but add
There is a cause before all others
That put us here, and I am glad
To give the credit to our mothers.

By some one has this truth been set
In black and white, that, tho' we look
Behind us with regret and regret,
We should go on, like Alfred's brook.
However that be, it seems to me
That years spent here have happy been:
I realize quite painfully
We shall not pass this way again.

For through this toilsome world, alas,
Where some kind actions we may do,
This once and only we pass.
My friends and comrades, 'tis too true,
Our school life's dead, it lives no more
Than does the winter that has flown:
But all of us by it have grown
To something greater than before.

We stand without the door of life,
We've been prepared to enter there,
They've forged us armor for the strife—
And given us a cross to bear.
By some wise Doctor all are "brought,"
We all are by "dear" teachers taught.
The most of us have rivals fought,
And by Dan Cupid must be caught.

But still are lives diversified
Life's chain is link'd of dress and gold,
Some men must walk while others ride;
All can't afford a battle cold.
Some will be followed, lives brief day,
By kindly old Dame Fortune.
For some she'll stay behind a way
Or send her child Miss Fortune.

Your life may bring you lots of fun;
In fact be pleasant all along,
Your troubles may be little ones;
Your whole existence one sweet song.
Why not insure it by your acts?
The one who wins is he who does:
Who builds upon a base of facts;
The one who makes things hum and buzz.

We'll stop with that, my comrades true,
So far as admonitions go.
I'll now try to propose to you
A toast that will make your hearts glow
So here's a toast to all those here,
It matters not where you are from:
May the best day of all past years
Be worse than yet the worst to come!

Here's to the years beyond our view,
May days to come, both bright and gay,
Renew old joys, bring new ones too,
And make all shadows fade away.
Now last, the health, in homely rhyme,
Of our old class mate, Father Time!
God grant our last survivor be
As bald, as wise, as "Tough" as he.

—RICHARD B. DUDUIT.

WOMEN ARE TERRIFIED BY A PROWLER CAUGHT PEEPING INTO WINDOW

An unknown prowler terrorized residents on Harvard street, about 9:30 o'clock Friday evening, causing the police to hurry to that vicinity to make an investigation. The man, however, escaped through the alley towards Ninth street, and was not apprehended. As the officers were given only a faint description of the intruder, his arrest is not likely.

Knowledge of the man's presence in that vicinity was first had when Mrs. Frank D. Carper, of 819 Harvard, ran into the prowler in the yard of Mrs. A. J. True's house, at 817 Harvard. Mrs. Carper had spent the evening with Mrs. True and was returning home. As she stepped out of the kitchen door of the True home and started next door to her own home, she came across the man, standing on the cellar door, apparently in the act of peeping through the window. When he saw Mrs. Carper he broke and ran through a coal shed in the rear of the lot into the alley, and north towards Ninth street.

It was too dark for the women to get a good view of the man, and they were unable to furnish the police with an accurate description of him when they arrived to make an investigation.

Surgeon's Special Will Come Monday

The N. & W. will operate a Surgeon's Special from Roonoke to Portsmouth, Monday. Should such a thing as a wreck overtake them, which is not probable, the proverbial "hurry call for surgical aid" will not be necessary as the excursionists could take care of the injured without outside assistance, as there will be 250 surgeons on board the train, accompanied by their wives.

It is the annual outing given each year by the N. & W. to the surgeons all along the system, and the special will follow No. 3 here Monday morning. After a few hours' stay in Portsmouth the distinguished visitors will board the steamer Greenwood and take a boat ride to Cincinnati. A great time has been planned by "the first aid to the injured" clan and they will forget such a thing as a surgeon's knife for two days at least.

Dr. and Mrs. S. S. Halderman of this city and Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Hutchens of Seabrook will join the party here and make the trip to Cincinnati. The trip is designed exclusively for pleasure and the outing will no doubt be a great success.

Will Soon Have 7 Miles Of Paving

Kelley Bros. have practically completed the first mile of paving west of Seabrook from the covered bridge. In a few days they will begin work on the mile and a half just east of New Boston.

When Gallin pike is paved from Portsmouth to New Boston there will be a stretch of seven miles of paved road, which will be a great spurway for automobilists and motorcycleists.

Lulu Kidder Sent To City Hospital

Lulu Kidder, the young Mendon girl, who has been before Mayor Frick on numerous occasions for incorrigibility, was committed to the Hampstead hospital Friday by the county commissioners for treatment, her condition being such as to warrant medical attention. When she recovers sufficiently to be discharged she will be taken in charge by the Salvation Army, the officers of which will see to it that she is committed to the correctional school in Cincinnati maintained by that organization.

Mrs. Lila Johnson, who was given the custody of the girl after her last arrest, consented to the plan.

Ministers Picnic To Be Held June 22

The committee of ministers, consisting of F. W. Chase, E. F. Rideout and J. W. Dunning, appointed to select a site for the holding of the annual picnic, have decided upon Millbrook park and fixed the date as June 22. The affair will be practically an all-day outing, the ministers, their families and every decent person being required to meet at the park promptly at 10:30 o'clock. Such strenuous games as croquet, quoits and horse shoes will be indulged in by the more vigorous pastors, while those who weigh less than 145 pounds will tackle nothing more nerve racking or tissue destroying than checkers. After luncheon, which will be served under the direction of Mesdames Rideout, Chase and Dunning, the entire party will band themselves into a rollers' delegation and will attend the ball game between Portsmouth and Chillicothe, and they expect to pull with might and main. Rev. E. G. Hamilton, pastor of Grandview Avenue Christian church, will be chief rooster, his aides being Ministers Chase, Dunning, Brooks and Hughes. When they give out of lung power, Rev. Robertson is expected to take up the running and make more noise than the whole bunch.

The ministers are looking forward to a grand and glorious time, and they, no doubt, will be disappointed if they are not there.

A Seven Room Bungalow—By John Henry Newson

"Home of Character No. 158"

This bungalow is built of frame with ordinary siding and a shingle roof. The porch railing and foundation is built of rock face stone, with a cut stone railing on each side of the steps and with steps also of cut stone.

The first floor has, in addition to the dining room, living room and kitchen, a small sized entrance vestibule, a library, bedroom, good closet, and toilet room, grade landing, stairs from the kitchen and butler's pantry, and an ample size rear porch, which can be used as a dining porch. The second floor has two bedrooms, bathroom, window seats in the alcoves off of each of the two bedrooms, a sleeping space off the hall. A very complete bungalow.

We would suggest hardwood floors throughout. The living room, dining room and library should be finished in oak, stained and waxed, while the bedrooms and bath should be in white enamel.

Under average conditions this bungalow 28x17 feet could be built for about $1500.

If you are thinking of building let The Times' Home of Character Department help you through advice from John Henry Newson. Address your inquiries to him "Home of Character" Department, The Times. Give the numbers of houses reprinted which you make inquiry.

HONOR THE STARS AND STRIPES

Sunday, June 14, is Flag Day. "The flag has floated over the 'Land of the Free and Home of the Brave' since June 14, 1777. Under its shadow has been a haven for the oppressed and its stars and stripes have ever stood for liberty and happiness.

"Flag Day commemorates the official birth of the American emblem whose desecration has never gone unpunished and whose Red, White and Blue has been carried onward and onward through war and peace.

"Every patriotic citizen of the United States should pay tribute to his country by displaying the Stars and Stripes on his home.

"The American Flag is the symbol of the brotherhood of man. It stands for courage, for chivalry, for generosity and honor.

"No hand may touch it roughly, no hand shall touch it irreverently.

"Its position is aloft, to float over its children, uplifting their eyes and hearts by its glowing colors and splendid promise. For under the Stars and Stripes are opportunities unknown to any other nation in the world.

"The government commands the people to honor their flag. Men and boys should uncover as they pass the vivid stripes which represent the life blood of brave men and the stars which shall shine on forever.

"It must be raised at sunrise; lowered at sunset. It is not a plaything of the hour. It is a birthright of privilege and integrity.

"It may not be used as a staff, whip or covering.

"It shall not be marred by advertisement nor desecrated on the stage.

"It was born in tears and blood. It was baptized in blood and tears.

"It must always be carried upright.

"To bear the Star Spangled Banner is an honor; to own one a sacred trust.

"It is the emblem of Freedom, Equality, of Justice for every person and creature as it floats over the open door of education."

Whitacre Braves Suffragist Storm

Warren, O., June 12.—Only two candidates of the forthcoming Ohio primaries have answered a general request by the Ohio Woman's Suffrage Association for an expression of views on Woman's Suffrage. Mrs. Harriet Taylor Upton, president, announced today.

J. J. Whitacre, Democratic candidate for governor said: "I am opposed to Woman's Suffrage. I will vote against the Bristow-Mandell resolution."

Timothy Hogan, candidate for United States senator said: "My personal belief on this question would be a matter of no interest to you. However, I pledge myself to stand by the principles enunciated in the Democratic platform."

NO OPPOSITION.

Chicago, June 13.—Grace Wilbert Trout, one of the leaders in the Federation of Woman's Clubs conference here, said that there would be practically no opposition to woman's suffrage. She said, however, no attempt would be made to have the Federation adopt part of its program.

Why not? V. can relieve you.

Boston, June 13.—Honus Wagner of the Pittsburgh baseball team demonstrated his ability as a fisherman today and also showed the natives that there are fish in the Charles river basin by catching a string of eight or ten pickerel. Anglers have been so unsuccessful hitherto that they had concluded there were no fish to be caught in the river.

After having been on the road for ten days Pete Childs and his gang of ballplayers will arrive home Sunday in time to tackle the league leaders, Lexington, in a battle royal at Millbrook park. Hostilities will be called at three balls.

Is Early Spurt A Hoodoo?

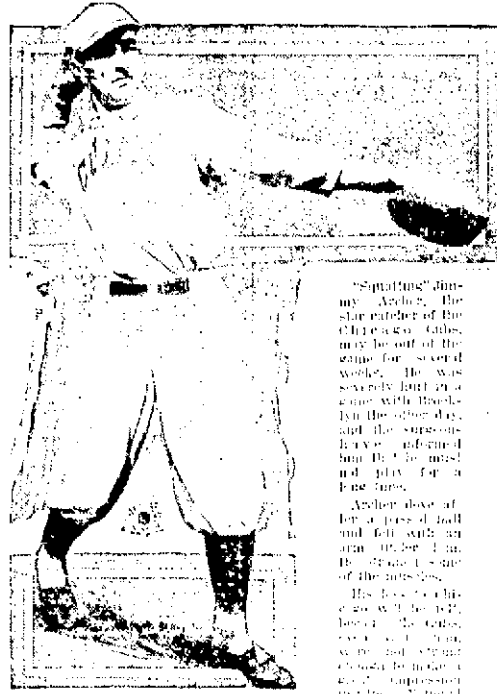

A GREAT RACE

The race in the old National league has certainly tightened up in the past week. Taking a new lease on life, the second tiered clubs have sprouted in great shape, the first four clubs being changed to even for fun. The Yankees, Boston has put in the best Pittsburgh, three strikes, And to think where the best would be if they had broken back down and out of town and broken The Yankees Phils. The Yankees is now shaping a real best five and before the end days of the year, August will around Boston may become a Red Sox. Wonders meet at once, Abnally.

Little Interest In Federal League

The reason that there is less interest in the United States than in the American National Archives is that, in this country, the public is more interested in the past than it is in the future. When the public is more interested in the past, it is more likely to be interested in the future.

Montreal, June 13.—A delegation of members of the Montreal baseball team waited on the management of the club today and requested that it be sold or traded to some of the other clubs in the International League, or else that they be transferred to some other league or organized baseball. The delegation admitted to President Lichtenbush that they were not capable of playing baseball to a winning caliber in the International League, and asked to be transferred for the benefit of the club as a whole. The team is at the bottom of the list.

COUNTY BOARD OF EDUCATION WAS SELECTED ON SATURDAY

Educational interests of Scioto county are to be directed by a county board of education elected Saturday when presidents of the various township boards elected A. B. McBride of Rarden, W. A. Pyles of Nile township, John Violet of Lucasville, Dr. A. G. Stevens of South Webster, and J. P. Shela of Porter township, to comprise the new board. McBride, Pyles, Violet, Stevens and Shela, are elected to terms of one, two, three, four and five years respectively. This board is empowered to elect a county superintendent and is required to do so within the next ten days.

Election of the county board of education was consummated without a hitch at the court house Saturday afternoon when twenty township educational board presidents convened in compliance with a new school code. No opposition developed in any of the elections and the vote was practically unanimous.

A. B. McBride received 19 of the 20 votes, Peter Brown of Rush township failing to arrive in time to cast his vote on this ballot. Pyles received 19 votes for the two year term. Mr. Brown refusing to vote for him. John Violet received the unanimous vote of 20. Dr. A. G. Stevens received 19 votes, he declining to cast a ballot in his own favor. One opposition vote was cast against J. P. Shela when Frank Taylor of New Boston, cast his vote in the negative.

County Auditor T. C. Patterson convened the meeting after which Dr. A. G. Stevens, of South Webster, was selected as chairman, and R. K. Day, of Rarden, was named as clerk. Only one name was placed in nomination in each election.

In the nomination of J. P. Shela, of Porter township to the five year term, Frank Taylor of New Boston, after the nominations had been closed, arose to a point of order for some unexpressed reason but was voted out of order by the chair and the election proceeded uninterrupted. The following township presidents qualified to vote.

 A. B. Preston, Wheelersburg special.

W. B. Halstead, Porter.

Vulcan Last Company Purchases A Patent

The Vulcan Last company has just purchased all patent rights on the "no gap" shoe form invented by Messrs. Youngman and Drennon, local shoemakers.

The last company now has the exclusive rights for manufacturing and selling the device, which, though simple, is very effective, maintaining as it does the shape of low shoes and pumps. Various other devices intended for similar purposes have not had the effect and appearance that the Portsmouth device has, and so far as shown to shoe manufacturers and traveling men has been strongly endorsed. The title of the article is descriptive and can be used to carry the price mark as well as the name of the shoe manufacturer or retail merchant as desired, making it very effective as an advertisement.

TEACHER'S DISCHARGE CAUSE OF STATEMENT

Editor Times: To whom it may concern, we the undersigned desire to make the following statement in regard to Albert Hilliard, who for years taught our Sunday school class at the Manly church, and who was without cause discharged and also the class was instructed. We, the members of the class, resent the whole thing as a rank insult. As to the charges preferred against Mr. Hilliard, nothing was proven; as to not believing in the Bible, we will say that we never heard him say anything that would cause us to believe such a charge; as to teaching Socialism in the class will say that we never heard him mention it in class. He is a man of clean life and we feel it our duty to exonerate him of all charges that we have heard against him.

The Innocent Bystander.

By Walter A. Sinclair.

Three the clock at his face, but who never could crowd any Wednesday and Saturday afternoon, his eyes off the stage.

"We are much more apt to speak out frankly in a momentary fit of passion than we are when we are with our husbands. If properly worked up in three colors, we would make an excellent supplement to the gloves worn by the Sunday drivers. Some women prefer to refer to their husbands as working, or impressive, or strong as to look rather than handsome. To the unappreciative outsider, friend husband usually looks striking because he won't work. And the only things that impress about his features are his teeth, which he impresses in three squares a day with his pie. And as for his strong features, his eyes are, 'It takes a wife to see beauty in a pale, plumped, rankled, red-rimmed and bleary-eyed half-portion, who does the family eating. It takes her to assure others that he is a beautiful doll; it takes her to discover that he is really a Sunday driver. Some women are a high forehead. How many, handsome is no handsome does no look."

"Oh, beauty is only skin deep," protested the regular fellow.

"Yes, but so many men have submitted to getting a wife to see beauty in a pale, plumped, rankled, red-rimmed and bleary-eyed half-portion, who does the family eating. It takes her to assure others that he is a beautiful doll; it takes her to discover that he is really a Sunday driver. Some women are a high forehead. How many, handsome is no handsome does no look."

ONE OF TWO ROUTES WILL BE SELECTED FOR THE NEW C. & O. LINE THROUGH OHIO

THE PORTSMOUTH ROUTE

The route that would bring the Chesapeake & Ohio Northern Railway Company's branch line to Columbus through Portsmouth branches off at Tygart, Ky., comes directly across the Ohio and strikes the west end of the N. & W. Terminals in East Portsmouth. Then it skirts the south side of the Portsmouth golf grounds to a point near Kendall avenue and then the line takes a northward turn, going up Mabert Road, through the foothills back of this road and then strikes the Chillicothe pike, where the Raccoon Road meets it. Then the line extends directly north to Davis Station, where it crosses the Scioto river by means of a steel and concrete bridge and then goes directly north through Waverly, clinging to the east side of the Scioto river all the way. The line goes through Ross county two miles east of Chillicothe, fairly cuts Circleville in twain and meets the Hooking Valley lines at Valley Crossing this side of Columbus. This route and the Sciotoville line meet at High Station where the company will have to bridge the Scioto river.

THE SCIOTOVILLE ROUTE

This route, which the Chesapeake and Ohio Northern Railway is giving serious consideration branches off the main line of the C. & O. just east of Lima. Then it crosses the Ohio river and goes up the east side of Sciotoville then through what is known as Little Scioto until Harrisonville is reached. Then the line extends through what is called Rocky Fork and goes to the headwaters of this creek and then extends along what is known as Beaver Creek and comes out two miles east of Waverly. Then it goes directly north, missing Chillicothe by two miles. It goes directly through Circleville and skirts the east side of the Scioto river to the point where the Hooking Valley tracks are met at Valley Crossing.

In a special Hooking Valley car that was attached to passenger train No. 16 N. & W. President George W. Stevens of the C. & O., President M. J. Caples of the Chesapeake & Ohio Northern Railway and Chief Engineer William Michel of the latter road reached Portsmouth at noon Saturday. President Stevens stepped off here for only a few minutes and continued his journey to Huntington, where he boarded C. & O. train No. 2 for Richmond. It was the first time President Stevens had looked over the two routes the C. & O. have under consideration from Portsmouth to Columbus and from Sciotoville to Columbus.

President Caples and Chief Engineer Michel spent almost four hours in the river city, returning to Columbus on passenger train N. & W. which left here at dusk.

"No we have not definitely decided which route we will use in operating our branch line to Columbus," said President Caples when asked if a definite route had been fixed. "As I have stated before both lines have their individual advantages and we are looking into every phase of them. The advantages of one offset the advantages in the other line and we are acting cautiously about this matter," continued Mr. Caples.

"Of course if we should adopt the Sciotoville route the bridge across the Ohio river would be six-tenths of a mile less in length than the one that would span the Ohio river opposite Tygart if the train No. 2 for Richmond. It was the first time President Stevens had looked over the two routes the C. & O. have under consideration from Portsmouth to Columbus and from Sciotoville to Columbus.

"But understand we prefer to follow the east side of the Scioto river all the way to Columbus. The route has its tremendous advantages, but they do not outweigh the advantages of equal importance on the Sciotoville line. The Sciotoville route is three miles shorter of the two."

Mr. Caples stated Saturday afternoon that it would be ten days and possibly two weeks before a definite decision would be made as to the preferable route.

William Michel, the chief engineer of the Chesapeake and Ohio Northern Railway was for 20 years at the head of the engineering department at the Hooking Valley.

Michel took pictures of the route and will be returning to the city this morning.

BOYS WHO CUT AUTO TIRES TO BE PUNISHED

John Capohart, coal dealer, by some clever sleuthing, has established the identity of the youths who conspired to slash the tires of passing automobiles at Shih Run a few nights ago.

Mr. Capohart on Saturday furnished Sheriff John Edhart with the names of the boys and will begin prosecuting them early next week. He has been encouraged to do so by many local motorists, who have offered to contribute to a fund to defray the expense of the prosecution and make examples of the miscreants.

Wires were stretched through the dust of the road and an open knife placed between. A number of machines passed around the wire, but Mr. Capohart failed to discover it in time and his tires were badly cut. The whole thing was carried out while a religious meeting was in progress in a nearby church.

Crossing Conference

Following a conference between L. D. York and Raymond York, and Attorney Arthur H. Bannion and a board of trade committee consisting of Messrs. L. C. Turley, Mark W. Selby and Charles Thacker, held at 4 o'clock Friday, it was announced that definite action on the proposed overhead crossing near Kendall avenue in the East End would be deferred until the middle of next week.

"We had intended drafting a resolution and put the matter up to the board of trade, but there are so many little niggles of the big proposition yet to be worked out that we deemed it expedient to act cautiously in this matter," said Mr. Turley Friday night in explaining the postponement of definite action on the overhead crossing and subway controversy.

At yesterday's conference, which came as a sequel to a visit to the scene of the proposed improvement, all phases of the project were gone into thoroughly and comprehensively. The board has a big job on its hands to please everybody and will do all in its power to arrive at a decision that will be to the liking of as many property owners as is possible under the circumstances.

The committee met again Saturday morning and formulated a plan, which will be put up to the board of trade proper. If it is adopted the plan will then be submitted to the city council at its next meeting.

Columbus, June 13.—The vast army of Ohio women, including those in the uppermost social strata, are beginning to turn their faces sternly to the menial tasks of the everyday housekeeper. Feminine heads of households are learning to cook. Dishwashing is no longer unfashionable. The slow but certain change has been discovered by the state free employment agencies which are located in all of the large cities and which are reporting that the women of the state themselves by force of necessity are trying to solve the everlasting servant problem by doing most of their own housework. The free employment agents who make a close study of all labor problems declare that as a matter of fact the old time domestic servant is gradually passing out of existence. Her place is being taken by the so-called laundress, who comes to the home of her mistress for one or two or three days each week and does most of the "heavy" work, including the washing. This type of worker is paid from $1 to $1.75 a day and averages about $1.50. It is she in fact who is replacing the old fashioned maid or "servant girl," who was a household fixture and who today is demanding an average of $5 or more a week. It was the scarcity of the servant girls that first caused housekeepers to turn to the laundress or woman day worker. Gradually the mistress began to discover that by having much of the harder work done by the laundress, she, the mistress, could do the rest without great trouble. Moreover, she was not compelled to board and house her new type of servant and thus she found a convenience. So it is that the women of the state are solving the servant question without actually realizing it. The solution involves the blistering of fingers or the lengthening of dainty hands, but on the whole the solution promises to be a permanent one.

Eastern Ohio will be especially interested in learning that State Highway Commissioner Marker has promised to recommend to Governor Cox that the road between Cleveland and Warren be designated a main market road. This practically makes it certain that there will be a paved road all the way between Cleveland and Pittsburgh within a short time. A delegation from Cleveland and territory through which the road lies came to Columbus Friday afternoon to request Marker to make this recommendation. Former Adjutant General Charles C. Weybeck of Alliance, accompanied by Colonel W. H. Morgan of Alliance, County Surveyor R. M. French of Columbiana county, and A. L. McDonald of the Pennsylvania highway department, were in conference with Commissioner Marker Friday afternoon to reach an agreement regarding the construction of a main market road from Canton and through Alliance, Salem, East Palestine and Columbiana to the Pennsylvania state line. There has been some hitch regarding where the road should join with the Pennsylvania roadway. This was smoothed out at the meeting.

Business is active at the penitentiary. Orders or so plentiful for the product of the knitting mill, that Warden Thomas has decided to operate the mill double shift, and so next week it will run day and night. This is the first time for a night shift at the penitentiary.

KITCHENETTES

First wash the kitchen table with vinegar and then scrub in the usual way. All staining will be removed in this way.

To remove varnish stains from cloth first moisten the stain with ammonia, then put on a few drops of turpentine and roll it up. Leave it rolled up for fifteen or twenty minutes and then wash with soapy water, rinsing well and drying in the sun.

An old piano stool will be found to be very convenient in the kitchen, as it can be adjusted to different heights.

Silver or gold jewelry may be cleaned by using one teaspoonful of ammonia to a teaspoon of water.

Add seeded raisins cut in half to the nut salad for a much better taste.

A pinch of orange will be found an excellent substitute for polish on shoes. Rub the leather well with it and, when dry, polish with a soft cloth.

Light soapuds are said to be excellent for making plants grow and blossom, on account of the potash therein.

Pecan nut meals, chopped and laid between slices of buttered brown bread, make delicious sandwiches.

Before a boiled ham has had a chance to cool perfectly cut out the bone and then fill up the hole with the trimmings from cutting. Tie the whole up tight and let it grow cold before cutting in slices.

HAVE DARK HAIR
AND LOOK YOUNG

Don't stay gray! Nobody can tell when you darken gray, faded hair with Sage Tea and Sulphur.

Grandmother kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and abundant. When over her hair fell out, she took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect. By looking at any young store for "Wych's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," you will get a large bottle of this medicine ready to use, for about 50 cents. This simple mixture can be depended upon to restore natural color and luster to the hair and is splendid for dandruff, dry, itchy scalp and falling hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says everybody uses Wych's Sage and Sulphur, because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied—it's so easy to use, too. You simply dampen a comb or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, it is restored to its natural color and looks glossy, soft and abundant.

2 Turkish Islands Annexed By Greece

Athens, Greece, June 13.—Formal announcement of the annexation of the Turkish islands of Chios and Mitylene by Greece was gazetted today, the Hellenic government thus further emphasizing its determination to ignore Turkey's contention that the possession of these islands was necessary for the defense of the adjacent Ottoman territory in Asia Minor.

In diplomatic circles it is feared this action of the Greek government at this particular time may be regarded as especially provocative by Turkey and force a crisis.

Soldiers Health Is Good At Vera Cruz

Washington, June 13.—Although Surgeon General Braisted of the navy department and other officials admit they are not worried over the health condition of American soldiers and sailors in Mexico nevertheless there is a current of apprehension for the soldiers and sailors.

The army sick list at the last report was 2.3 per cent and the navy 3.1 per cent while the normal rate is from 2 to 2½ per cent. American sanitation is the reason for a higher health rate at Vera Cruz than Tampico. We have to keep close watch, but I do not consider the situation alarming. We are all hoping the boys will soon be out of Mexico.

There is no danger of yellow fever. Despite this the army officials wish the soldiers might be at a higher altitude than that at Vera Cruz.

fronts of ten bouthings adjoining were burned out. Five hundred employees in the Lubin plant rushed to the street. Scores of girls became hysterical and tried to jump from windows. They were restrained by actors and employees.
